

Top Row—V. Johnson, Rynning, Krogman, Amundson, Reese, Stave, D. Hanson, Nakken, Fargo, Weckwerth, R. Grabowenski, A. Nelson, Richard Grabowenski, Erickson, Martinson, Hesby.
 Second Row—Pugh, Stepp, Vilven, Letnes, Anderson, Lindstrom, Holmgren, Gillbertson, Wermager, Stromstad, Sitko, Ellinger, Larson, Williamson, P. Hanson.
 Bottom Row—Harris, McVeety, Tastad, Sorenson, Nisbet, Severson, Miss Weinberger, Mrs. Hollander, Ingebretson, Eggum, H. Hanson, Mjelde, E. Torkelson, Sanden, Sargent.

Juniors

The class of '33 entered School with the distinction of being the smallest in both size and numbers for a number of years. This, however, proved an incentive to each and every one of us, for we resolved that reduced numbers should not prevent us from winning our share of school honors.

The motto we chose expressed our eagerness to tackle big things and our grit in seeing those things through: "Better to wear out than rust out."

Our colors, orange and black, symbolize a mixture of gayety and gravity.

As juniors this year a cut in our former enrollment of seventy-three to a mere forty-two did not daunt us. Our first outstanding victory of the season was first place in the Inter-Class Song Contest, which quite overwhelmed us, and proved to us that conscientious effort, zeal and class unity are all-important.

The Junior-Senior banquet has always been the crowning social event of the year, and this year we will have the same pride and pleasure that former classes have had in serving as hosts.

Two new names appear as advisers. Miss Cynthia Weinberger was elected to succeed Mr. Robert H. Connery, and Miss Hildur Peterson has become Mrs. Roy W. Hollander.

—PAUL, INGEBRETSON.