

LH

1

.N87

1932

foreword

WE, The Class of 1932, present this book as a reminder of the many happy days, spent at the Northwest School. We enter the ranks of the Alumni with full realization of all that the Northwest School has done in preparing us for the years that are to follow. As the years pass by, we hope to measure up to the high expectations of faculty, students, and friends of the "School of Service."