First Team

Alvin Gronner Underwood

Displaying basketball versatility, "Governor" has performed in a most creditable manner at the center, forward, and guard posts. He has another year at the school and Aggie rooters are expecting that his fine work will be continued.

Glenn Kramer Fargo

Glenn joined the Aggie family after the holidays and immediately captured the guard post on the team. His speed and accurate shooting eye have been instrumental in many Northwest School scores. Glenn has another year at the school.

O. Kenneth Avery Hallock

Playing his third season on Northwest School basketball teams, Kenneth has been playing his usually excellent floor game. The basketball season closes one of the most brilliant careers and records ever established at the school.

Arnold Wolden Saum

"Midget" is one of the fastest men on the squad and is a veritable "streak of lightning" on the basketball court. The 1932 season is his second and last in an Aggie uniform and closes his career as a Northwest School performer.

Clarence Carlson Stephen

At his center post "Toboggan" has had the jump on his opponents and many Aggie scores have been made as a result of his excellent floor play. The 1931-32 season is his last as an Aggie athlete.

Leo Maattala Oklee

With the close of the football season, Leo donned a basketball uniform and proceeded to win a forward position, where he has played an excellent game. His Aggie career will close this year.

Donald Anderson Perley

The "Perley flash" possesses one of the keenest pairs of eyes on the squad and has been high scorer in the 1931-32 campaign. His brief Northwest School career will close with the end of the basketball season.
