

Ruettell Sweater Awards

For a number of years the Ruettell Clothing Company of Crookston has offered a sweater to the most valuable man on both the football and basketball teams. This has led to the keenest kind of competition for the honor is the highest that can be conferred upon a Northwest School athlete.

Awards are based upon the popular vote of the entire squad together with the Superintendent, Coach, Crookston Daily Times, and the Ruettell Clothing Company.

Winners of the Ruettell sweaters up to and including the 1931 football season were as follows:
