

More Nonsense

Mr. Pilkey: "If you subtract sixteen from one hundred and nine, what's the difference?"

Yvonne Leslie: "Yea, I think it is a lot of foolishness, too."

Mr. McGenty: "Here, young man, do you think that you are the teacher of this class?"

Jack Ferrier: "No, I'm not."

Mr. McGenty: "Well, then, stop acting like an idiot."

Miss Thompson: "Yes, sir, we are up-to-date. Everything is cooked by electricity."

Rudy Berger: "I wonder if you could give these dogs a couple more shocks."

Mr. Wight: "Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"

Esther Torgerson: "At the bottom."

Mr. Kiser: "For your lesson tomorrow, look up in Genesis, Chapter II."

Wallace Abbott: "What bulletin is that in?"

Mr. Wight: "What about the Bill of Rights?"

Leonard Melin: "Do you mean the Ten Commandments?"

Richard Holmgren (inspecting room after Arnold Iverson had swept out): "Don't you ever sweep under the bed?"

Arnold: "Sure, there's where I sweep all the time."

Miss Hines: "And can anyone tell me what a dream is?"

Luella Peterson: "It's seeing the movies when you are asleep."

Mr. McGenty: "If the President should die, who would get the job?"

Ingolf Swanson: "The undertaker."
