

1929 – Class History – 1932

Freshman Year, 1929-30—"Green But Growing"

- Sept. 30 Registration Day. Miss Bedard takes our money. Ethel Pugh faints. Green, but Mr. Mlinar has hopes. Clair Dodgson assigned room in Robertson Hall.
- Oct. 1 We hunt dining hall. Chris Holte mistakes Robertson for class building. Classes begin and we have our first assembly, where we had our first view of the Soup (Supt.).
- Oct. 2 Chorus and glee club organized. Boys' Pow Wow at Senior Hall and Girls' Frolic at Robertson Hall. We all get acquainted.
- Oct. 3 In assembly Mr. Foker taught us how to shoot a fire gun.
- Oct. 4 Class meeting. We chose Supt. and Mrs. Dowell for our class advisers.
- Oct. 5 We were assigned our church pews in assembly. Our first "Pep Fest". Football game, Red Lake Falls here. Reception by Y. M.-Y. W. C. A.
- Oct. 6 Bible classes. In evening beautiful sacred concert by faculty.
- Oct. 7 We all picked our literary society.
- Oct. 8 Our first social hour. Toots gets a thrill out of dancing with Tommy Cain.
- Oct. 10 1929-30 scholarship awards. It pays to study.
- Oct. 12 Assembly. We learned how to use library. Football game and outdoor festival. Movie.
- Oct. 13 Rev. Vordale speaks at joint Y. service.
- Oct. 17 Physical exam. Temperature high, pulse low, but no casualties. Morris pep fest.
- Oct. 19 Morris defeats Aggies. Ossie makes first appearance and stays at Morris.
- Oct. 26 Home Coming. Many Alumni returned. Dance and Party.
- Nov. 2 Parents' Day. We show parents our school. Hallowe'en party and dance.
- Nov. 11 Armistice Day Program.
- Nov. 28 Thanksgiving Day. No time for home sickness. We inhaled 28 turkeys. Program in afternoon.
- Dec. 7. Mr. Mlinar takes lead in "Laff That Off." "And she's a boy."
- Dec. 14 Violet Solmonson leads us in our first song contest. Just missed first.
- Dec. 16-17 "EXAMS!!" Some go to hospital.
- Dec. 19 Christmas Get-Together dinner. We ate Don and found we liked venison.
- Dec. 20 All go home for Christmas vacation.
- Jan. 6 Good to be back.
- Jan. 11 Athletic and home project awards.
- Jan. 24 Basketball game with Park River. We won as usual.
- Jan. 25 Coffey Miller Players—"She Stoops to Conquer."
- Jan. 31 Basketball game with Grand Rapids.
- Feb. 10-14 Red River Valley Winter Shows and Farmers' short course. A cow chewed up Bertha Noss' scarf. We heard Vilhjalmur Steffansson.
- Feb. 14 Alumni Reunion.
- Feb. 24 Senior Class Play, "In Love with Love."
- Feb. 28 Basketball at Morris.
- Mar. 2 Open house Stephens Hall. Up at 5:30 Scrubbed floor.
- Mar. 3 Junior-Senior banquet. We wait tables.