OUR CLASS ADVISERS

*"Hold fast your dreams, my friends,
Let not young hearts be smothered out
Before they do quaint deeds
And fully flaunt their pride."*

This is the message we give to your Seniors. Do not stop dreaming. We do not mean idle day-dreaming, we mean having visions, seeing more than the humdrum work before you, feeling more than fatigue in the doing, or relief in the finishing.

When you are through school, do not be through thinking, and wondering and feeling about Things. Keep your minds sensitive, alert, and receptive.

Your life here has opened up a book. Your education has but shown you how to read. Curiosity, the will to find out, a love of adventure, enjoyment in music, recreation, good reading, interest in the problems that beset the world, tolerance, and love of people—these will rest and recreate you, and keep you young and dreaming.
