CLASS OF 1933

When we started out our Aggie career in the fall of '30 we met many defeats at the hands of our upper classmates. But through the great determination of our class we put up many interesting exhibitions of our skill and grit which the classes knew they would have to face in the three years we had left.

In face of the struggle through the years of the depression, our class has been outstanding in its class roll. In the fall of '32 we found many of our class mates back from their junior year. Not only do we boast of our enrollment but we also have quality in our class which is brought forth in the honor roll and in participation in the many school activities.

Our class yell is: "Bow Wow, Ki Yi, Senior Wow!" We have roared it out in many of our successful inter-class contests. Our class colors are orange and black, and the class flower is the jonquil.

Under the guiding hand of our class advisers, Mrs. Hollander and Miss Weinberger, we have had a most successful and happy career, and all members of the class have been loyal to their class motto, "Better to wear out than rust out."

RODNEY LINDSTROM,
President.
