

Red River Aggie

"A" MEN

ARCHIE NORTHRUP, Hawley
Center

Archie joined the Northwest School family this fall for his first and only year at the school. A veritable "streak of lightning" on the floor, Archie played an excellent game at the difficult center post.

ALVIN GRONNER, Underwood
Captain, Guard

Captain Gronner, playing his third and last season, has developed into one of the finest basketball players to wear a Northwest School uniform. Offensively he was high scorer, while defensively his brilliant play thrilled spectators. The basketball season closes his brilliant athletic career, during which time he has won three basketball letters.

CLARENCE WECKWERTH
Hazel
Guard

Following the close of the football season, Weckwerth donned a basketball uniform and proceeded to win a regular position on the team. Weckwerth has one more year at the school and is expected to repeat his good work of the past year.

RODNEY LINDSTRÖM, Lake Park
Forward

"Rod" is one of the fastest men on the squad, and big things are expected of him next season. The 1932-33 season is his first on the squad. His speed and accuracy were factors in the team's success.

STANLEY ALSETH, Fox
Forward

A steady, reliable performer, "Stan" has shown great promise in his first season on the squad. His coolness during the excitement of a game has had a good effect on his teammates. He will have two more seasons of basketball service.

MERVIN HAGEN, Underwood
Guard

"Tango", in his first season as a regular, was a tower of strength on the defense. His aggressiveness was an inspiration to his teammates. His Aggie athletic career closes with the basketball season.

AMES HOLTE, Shelley
Forward

The "Shelley kid" demonstrated unusual speed and elusiveness during the past season, which was his first in an Aggie uniform. Possessing a keen pair of eyes, Ames is expected to be an important factor on next year's team.

CARMEN EEG, Gary
Center

A newcomer at the school this year, Carmen won a position on the basketball squad through his versatility. His work during the past season stamps him as one of the mainstays of next year's aggregation.

CLASS BASKETBALL

The gym floor is in use almost every hour of the day. All through the winter quarter class teams are getting in shape and in the evenings from 6:30 to 7:30, playing off the schedule.
