

Red River Aggie

CAMPUS GLOSSARY

ADVANCED DAY—March 17th St. Pat reigns. Advanced take possession of the campus, classes, dining room. Buggy ride in early morning. Illustrious king and queen crown their members in assembly ceremony. Sunlight dance at Senior Hall. Underclassmen wish they were Advanced.

AMATEUR MUSICIANS. Performances in the dormitories include accordions, banjos, ukes, jews' harps, saws, and shoe-horns. Time hammered out by the foot, and music enjoyed by everyone??? See John Stromstad's neighbors.

ARMISTICE DAY. A program in honor of the day. Mr. McCall, who knew the boys from the N. W. S. A. who gave their lives in the World War, paid tribute to their memory and gave us the challenge to preserve the peace which their sacrifice won for us. Music by the mixed chorus. After the program, the faculty and students marched to the memorial where a floral tribute was placed on the monument by the senior class president, Rodney Lindstrom.

ASSEMBLIES. A tri-weekly accumulation of all the student body at the auditorium. Announcements, Freshmen public speaking, Senior theses, now and then a speaker with some funny jokes. There are some assemblies we remember: Mr. Dowell's welcome, Mr. Foker's eight foot fire talk, the Freshmen in whiskers and faculty men's bathrobes as Biblical prophets, the Senior Insane Asylum.

BATH TUBS. See rims, scouring powder.

BEAUTY TREATMENTS. For finger waves, facials, manicures, and other beauty treatments, call at the parlors of Heegard and Severson.

BEDARD'S DELICATESSEN. Depression closes Miss Thompson's cafeteria. Miss Bedard sells candy and apples. Advantages: (1) two bits a week saved, (2) Coach can check up on athletes. Disadvantages: (1) no coffee.

BED TIPPING. Childish sport belonging to Stephens Hall, occasionally found in other dormitories!?!?

BELLS. R-ring! deep slumber stopped. R-ring! Time for breakfast. D-ding! Sit down to breakfast. R-ring! Time for class. R-ring! Pick up books, start for next class. Etc. R-ring! Hurrah, end of last class. R-ring! Study hour. R-r-r-ring! Recreation hour!!

BELOW GRADE SLIPS. The bi-weekly black hand.

BENCHES. See Bench Warmers.

BENCHES. Place to go after you've been taken out of game for fumbling.

BENCH WARMERS. See Benches.

BLIZZARDS. See daily weather bulletin for winter quarter. See Winter Shows. See Room Cleaning.

BORROWING. An institution by which girls' wardrobes can be large and varied, any fellow can find a needle and thread if he hunts through all the rooms, and no one ever knows where his neckties are.

BOYS' POW WOW. Boys perform mysterious rites at Senior. The climax comes when the distance between Senior and Robertson is eaten up in 10 seconds. Much singing and yelling. Girls' heads appear out the windows in Robertson.

BUS. Our old faithful. Capacity unlimited. Runs best in snow, drifts and blizzards.

CAMPUSES. Modern substitution for razor strap behind woodshed. S. A.: "All right, boys, two weeks". Guilty student (under breath): "Railroad tracks for a spell."

CAMPUS CARS. 1. Steve Vilven's antique. (Has unquenchable thirst for hot water; is equipped with new patented rope starter.)

2. Mr. Ocock's Chevy. (Afflicted with chronic "stallitis," most painful attacks near Fisher.)

3. Sarg's Fire Truck. Purebred Holsteins, Poland Chinas, and Shropshires. (Official starter for above vehicles.)

4. Mr. Anderson's Yellow-Wheeler. (Coupe for two.) Usually parked in front of Home Ec.

CAMPUS CHILDREN. What can we say about the campus kiddies? They speak for themselves. Just retrospect—the Christmas Get-Together Banquet, the 4:15 bus from town, the campus parties, football and basketball games.

CANDY RAIDS. Racket on third floor Senior.