

CALENDAR

NOVEMBER

Saturday, 4—Parents' Day. Many guests in spite of bad weather. Mrs. Hollander seen about. Parents have a big time at party in Gym.

Sunday, 5—Seniors have sleigh-ride party. Krogstad bumped her nose. Miss Lane does an act on the milk sled.

Monday, 6—Rodney had a birthday—girls held party for him in Robertson. Rodney not invited.

Tuesday, 7—Mlinar loses pictures. Miss Kingston threatened by Black Hand. Rumors to the effect that the Dowells are leaving for Washington, D. C.

Thursday, 9—Faculty held Farewell Party for Dowells in Crookston. Result: Dining Hall a riot. Boys will be boys—and so will girls sometimes.

Friday, 10—We burn the Morris Goat in the Dining Hall in spite of Miss Lippett's protest. She suggested throwing it in a snowbank as an alternative. Football team leaves for Morris. Farewell supper for the Dowells in Dining Hall.

Saturday, 11—Armistice day program in Auditorium. Lester Lerud, Senior Class President, places wreath on monument. We played Morris a 13-13 tie to win championship and bring Ossie home again. Scarlet fever breaks out—no one allowed to go home.

Sunday, 12—Stormy weather. Everyone blue. Team comes home from Morris. Robertson goes wild.

Monday, 13—Ossie brings back some young ones. We won't let her go to Morris again. Students get shot in the health service. Jean loses three pounds.

Tuesday, 14—No Social hour. Three Senior Hall boys make campus a race track.

Wednesday, 15—Faculty all wandering what new teacher will look like, especially Miss Lane. Miss Warne states, "I do not choose to run." Miss Hughbanks silent but watchful.

Thursday, 16—Regular school routine. Debate tryouts.

Friday, 17—Fish for dinner. We wonder why we don't get our grades and are afraid we will.

Saturday, 18—North Dakota Playmakers entertain. New fad in hair dressing breaks out. Several girls have serious attacks that defy diagnosis.

Monday, 20—Basketball practice. Mr. Iverson has arrived and is getting acquainted. Song practice starts.

Tuesday, 21—Below grade slips. Mlinar presides over social hour. Mr. Iverson presides over Miss Hennig. Freshmen students preside over Robertson parlor, assisted by Miss Bede.

Wednesday, 22—Song practice. Report cards, followed by general depression.

Thursday, 23—Debate tryouts. We wonder what happened to Ebba's eye. Ask Elmer. Every one getting ready for Thanksgiving.

Saturday, 25—Movie in the evening—Richard the Lion Hearted. Edna Chapman and beau were applauded upon entrance.

Sunday, 26—Aggie Board in afternoon. Mr. McGenty's play is given. Selmer Johnson dies an unnatural death.

Monday, 27—Clothes washing day. Everyone busy. Song contest practice at usual time.

94