

CALENDAR

Tuesday, 28—Social hour. Jock sits guard for below graders and campused victims. Francis LaPlante danced with Harriet.

Wednesday, 29—Everybody busy getting table decorations ready for Thanksgiving. Basket ball tournament between floors of Senior and Stephens.

Thursday, 30—Thanksgiving Day. Everybody glad there is no school. Tables decorated in forenoon. Turkey carved and eaten. Program in auditorium. Orville and Treola do their stuff.

DECEMBER

Friday, 1—Back to school again. They could just as well have given us Friday and Saturday off, as we didn't learn anything anyway.

Saturday, 2—School dance and party—a lot of moonlight waltzes were enjoyed by——— ———(Reader, who signs here.) Peanut shower in room 23. Miss Bede ends all with a bang.

Sunday, 3—House of Robertson have to walk on plush bottomed shoes, or receive an echo of peace from the stairway. Nelda and Paul Billberg, and Jean and Harold Clow go to show.

Monday, 4—Half of population down town for Aggie Board pictures. Mr. Benson scratches his head.

Tuesday, 5—Housemeeting in all dormitories. Robertson is informed of a typographical error on dormitory rules. Also that unless properly signed out for hamburgers "You'll be treated accordingly."

Wednesday, 6—Visited by the Board of Regents. Have a very excellent assembly. Have the honor of listening to Dr. Mayo, Dr. Coffman, and Dr. Schneider.

Thursday, 7—Crookston Players present Cradle Snatchers at the Grand. Matinee drew the students who had a quarter. Mr. Mlinar, Mr. McGenty, and Bud Halverson were in the play.

Friday, 8—Interlude for final examinations, Christmas holidays and rest.

JANUARY, 1934

Monday, 8—Registration Day—All back with same old school spirit. Many new students.

Tuesday, 9—Social hour—everybody has a good time. Good to be back.

Wednesday, 10—Vestibules filled with old pals. Peggy and Jack realized their first scrap.

Thursday, 11—Strange interlude.

Saturday, 13—Miss Hennig left her imprint on the institution. Movie—"Flying Luck". Many tried to set examples likewise.

Sunday, 14—First Sunday—Usual church services.

Monday, 15—Long week came to a close.

Tuesday, 16—School calendar suffering from anaemia. Too busy making history, no time to record it.

Wednesday, 17—Calendar still confined. Condition serious. Aggie Board keep it alive by artificial respiration.

Thursday, 18—Aggie Board.

Friday, 19—Aggie Board.
(Repeat with day, and date to Sunday, March 4.)

Sunday, March 4—Calendar quietly passes away. No services held. Remains lie in state at Aggie office until this printing.