Karine—And did he (Marcus) actually dare steal a kiss from me?

Agatha—Yes, but I made him put it right back.

Miss Warne, in Freshman English class —“Two themes were turned in today without names on them.”

Student, after class—“Say, let's see that theme without a name on it.”

Miss Warne—“Nothing doing; you identify it! What did you write on?”

Student—“Theme paper.”

The way most Dads have to write us: “Dear $on.”
