If it weren't for the wads of gum under the seats of the rooms in Hill Building, about half of the chairs would have fallen to pieces years ago.

The difference between steak and hamburger at the dining hall is about two days.

Mr. Christgau, in swimming class: "What should be done in case of a drowning?"

Wermager—"I think the natural thing would be to have a funeral."

Miss Hennig—"Can you carry a tune?"

Marlys Hanson—"Sure, where to?"
