Faculty—An organization for the amusement of the student body.

Upper Classmen—Authorities on any subject.

Recitation—Giving the teachers some inside dope.

Absence—Depriving the class of your company and the benefit of your brain.

Quiz—Means by which the teachers display their ignorance by asking foolish questions.

Athlete—A dignified bunch of muscle to shovel snow or carry water.

Exams—Semester nightmares.

Is he tough? Well, sir, they tried to electrocute him and he blew the fuse!"

Mr. Pilkey—"I see you had your hair cut. About time!"

Curly—"Wrong again; I just had my ears lowered."

Harold V.—"After I read 'Bridge', by San Luis Rey, my game improved immensely."

Mr. Iverson—"Harriet, what is protoplasm?"

No answer.

Mr. Iverson—"Well, it's living matter in a cell."

Harriet—"Oh, I see, a jailbird."

Plea from northeast corner of Robertson's parlor: "Don't hold me responsible; I can't see what I'm doing."

Overheard in Robertson: "Is this a dress up party, or can we wear our own clothes?"
