

AGRONOMY ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

RAYMOND S. DUNHAM, M.S. Crookston, Minnesota
University of Illinois, University of Minnesota
Chemistry, Soils, Farm Management, Forage Crops

We nominate Mr. Dunham for Dean of Music. Diversified talents, a kindly manner, and an excellent instructor make him a popular figure on our campus.

ELMER R. CLARK, M.S. Crookston, Minnesota
University of Wisconsin, University of Minnesota
Farm Accounts, Cereal Crops, Physics, Civics

He speaks as one of authority on the subject of pure seed or home project. Keenly interested in the welfare of the students, he works untiringly toward that end.

ORVILLE M. KISER, M.S. Crookston, Minnesota
Kansas Agricultural College, University of Minnesota
Livestock Management, Farm Meats, Livestock Breeding, Judging, Dairy Production, Animal Breeding

A veritable Will Rogers of the campus—droll, witty and brilliant. He instructs his classes in a way we like and "we get the idea".

ALVIN M. PILKEY Crookston, Minnesota
University of Manitoba
Poultry, Arithmetic

He mixes reason with pleasure, wisdom with mirth, and underneath all we find a man who is sincerity and helpfulness personified.

RUFUS J. CHRISTGAU, B.S. Crookston, Minnesota
University of Minnesota
Sociology, Animal Husbandry, Physical Education, Athletics

The manly art is to do with might and main what you can do. Our coach exemplifies the manly art in a most satisfactory manner.
