When the Class of 1935 enrolled at the Northwest School, October 3, 1932, we were well aware of the fact that we were beginning school in a time of world wide depression, in a time when great sacrifices were required of our parents to send us here. Therefore, every member of the Class of 1935 took it upon himself to make the most of his opportunities.

As Freshmen we participated in all interclass events. Although we did not win many high honors, we gained experience for the following years.

As Juniors, this year, we returned with grim determination to better ourselves in every respect, and to live up to our class motto, "Build For Character and Not Fame." At our first meeting, we chose Miss Lydia Dahlen as class adviser to succeed Mr. Elwyn Ocock who efficiently served us during our Freshman year. We also added to our class a few new members whom we welcomed most heartily.

This year we have shown great improvement both in class work and extra-curricular activities. We have had more members represented on the honor roll with high scholastic standings than any other class. The members of the Junior class have taken a prominent part in all school activities, such as athletics, debate, dramatics and class events. Although we may not always win first place, we play the game squarely and try to show the best of sportsmanship.

The Junior-Senior banquet has always been the crowning social event of the year. This year we, as Juniors, have the pleasure and pride to be hosts and hostesses to the Seniors.

Next year, as Seniors, we hope to return to school and make one of the best senior classes in the history of this institution.
