We Wish to Say:

That we loathe the completion of our senior year. Our one great task is completed and we are able to sit back with a feeling of satisfaction that our attempts have not been futile.

As a passing word, we of the Aggie Board would like to express our appreciation to:

Miss Elsie Mae Kingston and Mr. Denis McGenty, our class advisers, for their constant, thorough leadership.

Miss Kate Bedard for the handling of our funds.

Buckbee Mears Co. for their cooperation and helpful suggestions.

Mr. John Benson for the fine photography presented herein.

Miss Wilma Coss for her ever willing assistance.

The student body for their hearty cooperation in making this book possible.

The business houses of Crookston for their advertisements.

We believe we have lived up to our motto (Spend all you have for loveliness) and offer for your kind consideration this Annual.
