

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1934, dedicate the athletic section of our annual to three boys who, because of their outstanding ability, character and leadership, have set themselves high in the esteem of their fellow Aggies and at their graduation received the highest and most coveted honor of the school—the Widseth-LaVoi medal.

ALVIN GRONNER

Underwood

Winner, 1933

Alvin is the most recent to receive recognition for outstanding work in athletics and scholarship. Beginning in his junior year he won a regular position on the basketball team and after three years in this sport he was considered one of the most versatile basketballers to be developed at the school. He captained the school basketball team in his advanced year. In football he was awarded two letters and was a star at an end post on the Aggie elevens of 1931 and 1932. Alvin maintained a high scholastic average during his Aggie career. His Northwest School record also includes participation in the boys' glee club and mixed chorus besides four years' service as class officer and sports editor of the 1932 Aggie.

LAWRENCE ELTON

Hawley

Winner, 1931

Lawrence was one of the mainstays of the 1930 championship football team. On the 1931 basketball quint he was one of the high scorers. He was elected honorary captain at the close of the season. He was also an important factor in all minor athletic events such as swimming, wrestling, and track events. Elton's interests were not confined solely to athletics, as he was a member of the boys' glee club, the mixed chorus, the Agrarian Literary Society, and also served as an officer of the Y. M. C. A. A conscientious student, Elton made an excellent scholastic record.

KENNETH AVERY

Roseville, Ill.

Winner, 1932

Kenneth established an unusual athletic record at the school, winning seven letters in major sports, four in football and three in basketball. He captained the 1931 championship football team and was awarded the Ruettell Honor Sweater for being the most valuable man on the squad. His athletic career ended with the basketball season of 1932, when for the third consecutive season he played guard on a Northwest School team. In the minor sports he excelled in swimming, boxing and wrestling. Other school affairs that attracted his interest were the boys' glee club, the mixed chorus and the school operetta. Besides his fine extracurricular record, Kenneth ranked high among his classmates in scholarship.
