

DEDICATION

Knowing the warmth of his friendship, the kindness of his leadership, and the strength of his character, and recognizing the accomplishment of his past years, appreciating the dignity of his present national responsibility, while anticipating continued achievement for many years, we dedicate our yearbook to our superintendent, Dr. Austin A. Dowell.

"It may be said—his judgment ruled our hands."