

CALENDAR

OCTOBER

Monday, 2—Registration Day. Mlinar peeking over the top of his desk at new and old students.

Tuesday, 3—First day of school; Freshmen mistake Stephens hall for the Hill building.

Wednesday, 4—Rodney and Rose hold conference during assembly period ? ? ?

Thursday, 5—Freshmen still looking for a class. Class meeting. Election of officers.

Friday, 6—Music tryouts; students diagnose new music teachers.

Saturday, 7—Foot ball game—Concordia Frosh. Score 15-0 and we didn't win. Get acquainted party in Gym—and did we get acquainted.

Sunday, 8—First church services. Mlinar holds his weekly kittenball game.

Monday, 9—Blue, wash day. Students look over Crookston.

Tuesday, 10—First social hour, 100% attendance, no below graders. Everyone had a good time, except the football men.

Wednesday, 11—Mixed chorus tryouts. Miss Hennig tears her hair.

Thursday, 12—Foker's 17th annual Fire Prevention Day talk.

Friday, 13—Superstitions galore. Harriet walking around with her fingers crossed.

Saturday, 14—McGenty's much anticipated library speech. Played N. D. Frosh. Our boys got trimmed. Harvest Festival—Seniors walk away with the bacon. Mlinar's famous egg shampoo.

Sunday, 15—Regular services. Tack and Belva do the Grand Theatre in great style.

Monday, 16—Class meetings. Seniors broke. Haugo backs into Dowell's clothes closet. Good time had by all.

Tuesday, 17—Physical exams; below grade slips out. 25 per cent attendance at social hour.

Wednesday, 18—Girls rush to be examined by University doctors. No one sick, dead or dying. Ailments and deficiencies mostly mental.

Thursday, 19—Juniors hold assembly. Class meeting for annual class parties. Agatha breaks window. Naughty! Naughty!

Saturday, 21—Football game—Bemidji Teachers here. 63-6. Curly cracked his head. Class parties. Freshmen act wild; Juniors act terrible; Seniors act worse. Advanced defy description.

Sunday, 22—Eddie Myers shows his smiling face on the campus. Faculty program, "Sorry, girls; good-night, boys."

Monday, 23—The Clow-Krogstad team going to a show. Aggie board goes to town.

Tuesday, 24—Curly back to school. Social hour. Faculty holds sway. (Everyone else below grade.)

Saturday, 28—Homecoming — terrible weather. Girls eye Grand Rapids team. Football game — we won after a tough game, 6-0. Banquet at six. Dance in Gym. Many old faces about the campus.

Sunday, 29—Alumni leaving for home. Services in Auditorium.