

Miss Warne

Violin

- Given:* Four strings and a bow, a neck and four pegs, eighty-three little pieces of various kinds of wood glued together. Lines and dots and similar symbols on a white page.
- The Problem:* To put these together into music. Is it possible that a heart can be torn with the beauty of the sound produced? Can a tired soul be soothed by the tones resulting from the putting together of the violin, the bow, the notes, and the violinist? Only through long hours of patient work, of weariness, of following a hard path toward the one vanishing goal: perfect music.
- The Reward:* The joy of having achieved the most difficult of all musical accomplishments, the ability to play a violin.

Boys' Glee Club

- Top Row—M. Chilson, J. Stanko, E. Johnson, N. Oistad, A. Rowley, H. Nabben, H. Thompson, M. Nabben, C. Stromberg, H. Becker, F. Nelson, L. Larson, J. Myrold, C. Johnson, M. Hanson, F. Johnson.
- Second Row—L. MacGregor, E. Lindberg, O. Thompson, R. Sheldon, D. Gandrud, T. O'Brien, C. Grove, B. Johnsen, W. Munby, N. Hanson, B. Bergeson, A. Johnson, W. Holland, C. Ingebretson, L. Hanson, H. Fink.
- First Row—C. Sauer, R. Wentzel, P. Billberg, L. Lerud, H. Sanden, E. Washburn, Miss Hennig, Miss Lane, C. Homstad, H. Pester, E. Sargent, E. Carlson, P. Hegreberg, D. Anderson.

