

NOEL HANSON

Center, Fullback, Captain-Elect

Noel distinguished himself in both center and fullback positions. Because of his drive he was a worry to his opponents and when he would charge, a hole was sure to be opened. He has one more year and big things are expected of hard-driving Noel.

STANLEY ALSETH

End

"Stan" could receive passes any place within the game. This was demonstrated on many occasions. He not only could receive passes but while we were in danger, with his wonderful punting ability, we soon found the ball on the three yard line on the end of the field.

MARCUS WOLDEN

Halfback

"Marky" playing his first year of football on the Aggie gridiron showed wonderful prospects for the coming season. When it comes to speed and slipperiness Marky has all these talents.

ROLAND WENTZEL

Guard

"Wentz" playing his first year on an Aggie team showed what he had in him. When it came to pulling out of the line for interference he was on the job. He has two more years to play and prospects are exceptionally bright for him.

ELMER ROSS

End, Halfback

The Fisher Kid showed some brilliant receiving of passes throughout the whole season. This being his second, but not last year on the team, we are waiting for him in 1935. He could not only catch passes, but could also intercept.

HARRY TANGEN

Halfback

"Tango" ending his football career this season showed great skill in carrying the ball. This was Harry's last year on the Aggie team, and the team will miss him next year a great deal.

PAUL BILLBERG

Center

"Goldy" playing his first year of football, could pass the ball from center. Although he was one of the lightest men on the team he was a great asset to the progress of the 1934 football team.

CARL TIEDJE

Tackle

"Red" was the only regular Freshman on the squad. His ability to talk things up was as good as his ability at drives and tackles.
