CAMPUS CHRONICLES

OCTOBER

Monday, 1—Registration Day. Dust storm brought with it one hundred Freshmen.

Tuesday, 2—Classes begin. Grand rush to find class rooms. House meeting in all dormitories—we find out what's what.

Wednesday, 3—Freshmen walk around with bewildered expressions registered on their faces. Advanced girls feed new students "cat eyes" and apples. Boys pow-wow at gym. Mr. Christgau's rare story. Boys serenade Robertson Hall.

Thursday, 4—Mr. Kallal and Miss Hennig chosen parents of the Freshmen class.

Friday, 5—Football team went to Minot. Luella and Gladys start choosing boy friends.

Saturday, 6—Y. W. and Y. M. reception. Students get acquainted. Faculty enjoyed Virginia Reel.

Sunday, 7—A beautiful day. Miss Bede and Miss Kingston, apparently enjoying nature while sitting on the lawn, incidentally kept a "strolling eye" on the "watchful couples."

Monday, 8—Annual trek of students to the village for room decorations. Faculty had their annual "stakes" in the grove!

Tuesday, 9—No below grade slips. One hundred per cent attendance at social hour.

Friday, 13—Senior girls win kittenball game over Advanced.

Saturday, 14—We tied Grand Forks at football. Outdoor festival. Bring on the beans. Kenneth Foster presented "The Chinese Treasure Chest."

Monday, 15—Well, another weekend gone by.

Tuesday, 16—A rare day—rain. Peppy orchestra for social hour.

Thursday, 18—Freshmen and Juniors present points on football at assembly.

Friday, 19—Pep fest. All the girls down in front—to get a good look at the Morris boys.

Saturday, 20—Homecoming. Alumni return to greet old friends. Whoopee! Ossie liked our mud—will remain with us another year. Score 6 to 2 in Morris' disfavor. Good food at party. Good time at dance in the evening.

Sunday, 21—Ossie sees the Morris team off.

Monday, 22—Home Management class visits the sugar beet factory at Grand Forks. A good time reported—but a horrible smell.

Tuesday, 23—Enter physical examinations—exit classes.

Saturday, 27—Seniors taxi to town to see "Kansas City Princess." Calories in Senior Hall afterward.

NOVEMBER

Friday, 2—Everybody busy with exhibits.

Saturday, 3—A beautiful Indian summer day. Parents came to spend the day with us. We enjoyed afternoon coffee in the gym. Many parents remained for party in the evening.

Wednesday, 7—Junior girls entertain faculty at dinner party.

Saturday, 10—Miss Anne Simley, former Dramatics coach, presented the Hamline Players in "Tons of Money."

Monday, 12—Helen Carlson went fishing. For further information see Helen.

Tuesday, 13—Debate try-outs.

Wednesday, 14—Seniors selected their rings. Mr. Brown called on the Aggie Board in its private office.

Friday, 16—Registrar's conference. Mr. Mlinar there—or elsewhere.

Saturday, 17—Fine day. No registrar—no librarian—no excuses. So we cut classes.

Monday, 19—Cheerio! Registrar back looking exhausted—what a conference!
