

Saturday, 24—Mr. Mlinar dismissed History class via fire escape to listen to Wisconsin game. Dance in the gym. Party in the cafeteria. Good time had by all.

Monday, 26—Song rehearsals begin.

Wednesday, 28—Mad rush for five o'clock bus. "Heads of Tables" to town to buy table decorations for Thanksgiving.

Thursday, 29—Thanksgiving Day. It speaks for itself.

DECEMBER

Saturday, 1—Ed Widseth spoke in assembly.

Sunday, 2—Seniors busy in the library on thesis.

Saturday, 8—Lost basketball game to Grand Forks. Rush in cafeteria following.

Wednesday, 11—Seniors and Advanced much upset over English contracts. Measles overtook us.

Saturday, 14—Lost basketball game to Fertile.

Sunday, 15—Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang." Girls' party in Robertson Hall. Mr. Kallal made a fine Santa Claus. Four more days left of school.

Monday, 16—Song contest. Advanced take first honors. More measles—another nurse at the Health Service. Measles pop out—we pop in.

Tuesday, 17—Faculty spree around the tree.

Wednesday, 18—Enter exams—exit brains. Christmas banquet.

Thursday, 19—Last day of school for this year. Welcome two weeks of heavenly bliss.

JANUARY

Monday, 7—Registration day. Everybody rarin' to go.

Tuesday, 8—Class begins. Hundred per cent attendance at social hour in the evening.

Thursday, 10—Senior class play try-outs begin. Brand new arrival on campus—Mrs. Kallal. Senior boys give newlyweds rice shower.

Friday, 11—Old Man Winter keeps everyone on the campus.

Saturday, 12—Erskine quintet won from us in a hot battle—basketball. Score 19-18.

Wednesday, 16—Committee meeting of "Heads of Tables" in dining hall to decide on the radio. Refreshments served.

Saturday, 19—Plummer victorious in basketball. Score 34-32. All school dance—Oh, sweet the hours from 8 to 11:30.

Thursday, 24—Variety Night rehearsal.

Friday, 25—Miss Dahlen reports the sad news that red measles have already overtaken many students and sent them to bed—or rather, Miss Dahlen did.

Saturday, 26—Variety Night. Acts ranging all the way from the Discontented Cow to Kitchen Chimes. Excellent performances.

Tuesday, 29—Senior girls win over Freshmen girls in basketball—36-8.

Wednesday, 30—Senior boys lost to Freshmen boys—(never mind the score). Was Miss Hughbanks ever fooled!

Thursday, 31—Lights went out during supper and remained out until study hour. How convenient.

FEBRUARY

Monday, 4—Winter Shows.

Thursday, 7—Agatha Olson is crowned Silver Queen of the Pageant at the Winter Shows.

Friday, 8—Alumni dance. A good time was had by all. Large attendance. Welcome, Alumni.

Saturday, 23—We lost basketball game to North Central Aggies. Score 29-16. Informal dance.

Sunday, 24—Splendid music recital by Miss Constance Lane and Mr. R. S. Dunham.

Tuesday, 26—"Smilin' Through" presented by the Senior class.

MARCH

Monday, 3—Seniors entertained by Juniors at a lovely banquet and reception. Last of Aggie goes to press.

HERE ENDETH OUR CHRONICLES.