

1911 Team

five regulars are graduating. Capt. Ross, who played three years as guard, finished a successful career as a strong defensive man and a cool, clever key man on offense. Harry Fink, the other guard, was the best long shot on the squad and also steady on defense. Clarence Stromberg at center controlled the tip off against most opponents and used his height to good advantage under the basket. Kenny Albertson was responsible for most of our team's points, either through field goals of his own or by feeder passes to team mates, while Lester MacGregor, though the smallest man on the squad, played a big part in both offense and defense. As individuals and as a team these boys will long be remembered by all Aggies who saw them play, as typical examples of true sportsmen. Their loss will be keenly felt. Reserves for next year include Wentzel, Hegreberg and Freiji, seniors, and Lenes, Olson and Isaacson, freshmen.
