

Girls' Basket Ball

Inter-class basketball has always been an outstanding athletic activity for girls at the Northwest School.

Competition has always been keen among the classes, and the interest on the part of the student body in the girls' games is very nearly as great as at the boys' inter-school games. This has been partly due to the silver trophy awarded to the winning team. This trophy was awarded for the first time to the class of 1934 in 1934. Last year the class of 1936 was victorious and received the trophy.

Fine sportsmanship has been shown throughout all the games by the various teams. Each team has fought hard and taken their defeats and victories with a smile. Because they have played the game fairly they have created a keener interest in this activity.
