

Calendar

Monday, Sept. 30—

Registration—Many happy reunions among upper-classmen. More tearful partings between freshmen and parents.

Tuesday, Oct. 1—

Classes begin—Superintendent Dowell addresses assembly. Dormitory students learn rules.

Thursday, Oct. 3—

Burnett speaks on conservation. Classes hold organization meetings.

Friday, Oct. 4—

Special surprise assembly. We meet Dean Coffey and Dr. Andrew Boss.

Saturday, Oct. 5—

First football game vs. Grand Forks Reserves, 13-13 tie. Y.M.-Y.W. reception at night. Faculty complain of sore hands.

Sunday, Oct. 6—

Music staff, Miss Smith and Mr. Ritzman do their stuff. First Robertson Hall parade.

Tuesday, Oct. 8—

Foker tells us how to save heat. First meeting of the Cold Shower Club. First Aggie Board meeting.

Thursday, Oct. 10—

Miss Bede's father, J. Adam, speaks in assembly. We know now where she gets it.

Saturday, Oct. 12—

Movie, "Farther, Faster, Safer," in assembly. Football team fails to profit by it as Park River goes farther and faster to a safe win. Outdoor festival at night. Hurray for the Juniors!

Tuesday, Oct. 15—

Mr. Ritzman tells us how to study.

Thursday, Oct. 17—

Miss Warne's proteges practice public speaking in assembly.

Friday, Oct. 18—

Football team goes to Mahnomen and down to defeat 13 to 6.

Saturday, Oct. 19—

Sidney Montague tells us about the North country.

Monday, Oct. 21—

Aggie Board begins to see the light. Calendar custodian appointed.

Thursday, Oct. 24—

Dr. Nydahl tells what ails us. Debaters try out.

Friday, Oct. 25—

Big pepfest and bonfire. Adopt motto "Grind Grand Rapids."

Saturday, Oct. 26—

Aggie Hill Billies in hot revue for Grand Rapids football team and St. Paul cross country team in assembly. Both show much ingratitude by defeating us in the afternoon. Dance and party salve our sorrow.

Monday, Oct. 28—

Seniors survey ring situation—learn about high pressure.

Tuesday, Oct. 29—

Alfred Olson shows envious onlookers at Social Hour just how it goes.

Friday, Nov. 1—

Last minute rush to get projects ready for exhibit. Morris Hanson loses a potato.

Saturday, Nov. 2—

We put on parade for proud parents. Faculty frantically try to associate names and faces. Mr. Mlinar scores perfect. Miss Bede scores hit with coffee.

Monday, Nov. 4—

Faculty questionnaires made up at Aggie Board meeting.

Thursday, Nov. 7—

Dr. Norman deflates our ego in talk on prehistoric culture.

Saturday, Nov. 9—

Armistice day program. Football team practices with snowballs. Movie "White Parade." Burning of the Morris Goat.

Sunday, Nov. 10—

Team and Ossie depart for Morris. Much pep in Dining Hall.

Monday, Nov. 11—

Ossie changes habitat. Aggie Board meeting. Jimmie Weckwerth begins to feel the weight of his responsibility.

Tuesday, Nov. 12—

Boys return from Morris. Social hour well attended.

Wednesday, Nov. 13—

House meeting in Senior Hall. Miss Retta Bede guest speaker.

Saturday, Nov. 16—

Congressman R. T. Buckler speaks in assembly.

Monday, Nov. 18—

Aggie Board meeting. Faculty questionnaire thrown in waste basket.

Thursday, Nov. 21—

First Freshman public speaking program in assembly.

Saturday, Nov. 23—

Class parties. Seniors learn limitations of radio.

Thursday, Nov. 28—

Thanksgiving. Program in afternoon.

Saturday, Nov. 30—

Ed Widseth speaks at assembly. Final dance and party of first semester.

Monday, Dec. 2—

Song contest organization. Mr. Mlinar makes pep speech and leads songs.

Tuesday, Dec. 3—

Song contest instead of Social Hour. Shucks!

Wednesday, Dec. 4—

A few of the faculty hold a skating party. (In the moonlight.)

Saturday, Dec. 7—

Basketball game with East Side. We lose 22-17.

Monday, Dec. 9—

Aggie Board meeting. Make up new painless faculty questionnaire.

Tuesday, Dec. 10—

Seniors discouraged over prospects for winning song contest. Reason: Ramberg skips practice.