

Aggie Daze

The All-American drawback from Flunkwell College writes a test.

Q. Who were the Gauls?

A. They were the ancient French people.

Q. What were the tablets of stone on which they wrote called?

A. Gallstones.

Q. What are vitamins?

A. They are small organisms found in food which cause the dread disease known as St. Vitamin's Dance.

Q. Use the word "archaic" in a sentence.

A. We can't have archaic and eat it too.

Q. Can you tell where elephants are found?

A. Elephants are such large animals they hardly ever get lost.

Q. Who was Anne Boleyn?

A. It was a flat iron. Because it says in the book

"When Catherine was gone, Henry pressed his suit with Anne Boleyn."

Q. What is propaganda?

A. It must be the brother of a proper goose.

Q. Who is the greatest cross-country sprinter?

A. John Barrymore.

Q. Use the word "satiated" in a sentence.

A. I took my sweetie out to dinner and I'll satiate a lot.

Q. How could you make anti-freeze?

A. Hide her woolen pajamas.

Q. What is it that comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb?

A. Father.

Q. Use the word "expectorate" in a sentence.

A. I flunked the test I took yesterday, but I expectorate higher in this one.

THE COLD SHOWER CLUB

Active members:

Clayton Isaacson

Kenneth Albertson

Phil Bergeron

Chan Freiji

Hugh Hoard

Ray Higgin

Dues—none—only don'ts.

Pass word ?(!*x; **

Faculty adviser, Mr. Christgau.

Degree of Honor (34 Fahrenheit)

DEFINITIONS OF HOME ECONOMICS

Received by Miss Kingston

Home economics is a study including cooking and sewing with the working parts.

Home economics is the way to making food taste good and look apatizing with little expenses. The same thing for sowing.

Home economics is a building of a home and a school. The place where we learn about food.

Home economics is a thing which is one of the things which is necessary for the home life.

Home kinomicks is ickominy in the home such as cooking and sewing.