

Jittery Jests

Woodrow Evans: "What will it be tonight, a hair cut?"

Marshall Evans: "Nope, just a change of oil."

Ol' Man Red River says, "People who jump at conclusions usually limp by the time they reach certainties."

Miss Hughbanks: "I have a larger class in Typing than you do."

Miss Warne: "Yes, you're just two chumps ahead of me."

Ol' Man Red River says, "A saxophone is an ill wind that blows nobody good."

Clerk: "These are strong shirts, sir. They simply laugh at the laundry."

Mr. Rusk: "Yeah, I know that kind. I've had some that come back with their sides split."

Ol' Man Red River says, "Life brings changes. A sighing lover soon becomes a loving sire."

Elmer H.: "She is a nicely reared girl, isn't she?"

Alfred O.: "I should say so. Not so bad from the front, either."

Ol' Man Red River says, "Coffee isn't the only thing that's fresh when dated."

Miss Hennig: "I'm going to take a tramp down to the river."

Mr. Ritzman: "Wouldn't you just as soon take me instead?"

Ol' Man Red River says, "He who falls in love with himself will have few rivals."

Werner Weindorf (to Floyd Chambers): "We're in for it now—you delivered Dowells some of those eggs we labeled February 10, and this is only February 1st."

Ol' Man Red River says: "The distance between some students' ears is one block."

Barber: "And how do you want your hair cut, my little man?"

Edward Clark: "Like my daddy's—with a hole in the middle."

Ol' Man Red River says: "There are more self-made women than men according to the druggist."

Mr. Mlinar caught a boy stealing candy in Stephen Hall and brought him before Mr. Dowell, who lectured him on the evils of stealing, saying, "You shouldn't yield to temptation. Haven't you heard you should flee from the evil one?"

The Freshie tearfully replied: "I did, Sir, but he caught me before I got into my room."

Ol' Man Red River says: "A determination to make good is the first mortgage on success."

Mrs. Pilkey, "Oh, Morley, David has swallowed the yeast!"

Mr. Pilkey, "Well, you always predicted that he was bound to rise."

Ol' Man Red River says: "Don't let fear of falling keep you from trying to climb. The only thing that can't fall down is a worm."

Freshie (in Mike's Shine Parlor downtown): "What do you fix these shoes with?"

Mike: "Hide."

Freshie: "What do you mean—hide?"

Mike: "Hide, hide, the cow's outside."

Freshie: "Well, let her come in. Who's afraid of a cow, anyway?"

Ol' Man Red River says: "Telling a lie and getting away with it isn't so much a sin as an accomplishment."

Mr. Clark: "Notice how brightly Orion shines tonight."

Miss Hughbanks: "O'Ryan is it? Well, I'm glad there's one Irishman in heaven, anyway."
