

Class Advisers

Dear Seniors:

For three years you have been in training for participation in the great game of life.

If you play the game until the final whistle without replacement for incompetence, without penalty for unfairness, without bitterness when losing and without arrogance when victorious, you will have fulfilled the highest expectations of the coaches—your teachers and advisers.

Rufus J. Christgau
Alice E. Christgau