

FOREWORD

The present school year marks the fortieth anniversary of the establishment of the Northwest Experimental Station and the thirtieth anniversary of the opening of the school. Therefore we believe it appropriate to depict in this volume the history of our institution in the hope that such a record will help to keep alive the ideals and traditions that have been so closely associated with the growth of the Northwest School and Station.

