

DEDICATION

To Mr. Andrew T. Hoverstad, who as first superintendent of the Northwest Experiment Station laid a sound foundation for the growth that was to follow and who now, forty years later, is still deeply interested in agricultural research and education we, the class of 1936, gratefully dedicate this book.

