Mon., Sept. 28—Registration Day. (See 2) Freshmen are awed by Mr. Mlinar.

Tues., Sept. 29—First day of school. New students run helter skelter in search of classrooms. (See 5, 7) The waitresses are learning who wants milk and who doesn't. (See 12)

Wed., Sept. 30—Girls' Frolic, Boys' Pow-Wow. Mr. Streeter shows us the Scandinavian in him.

Thurs., Oct. 1—Class meetings. Seniors select Mr. Streeter. "Thank you, thank you—and thank you." The Juniors already have Miss Smith and Mr. Promersberger, and the Freshmen pick Miss Lohn and Mr. Rusk. (See 4, 9, 10)

Sat., Oct. 3—We all get together for a get-together in the gym.

Sunday, Oct. 4—A beautiful day—and beautiful girls. (See 13)

Mon., Oct. 5—First Aggie Board meeting. Ambitious Seniors roll up their sleeves. Second week of football practice. (See 3)

Tues., Oct. 6—Students worry about below grade slips. Even "Tuffy" is looking for one. (See 8)

Thurs., Oct. 8—Henry Becker puts salt in the Democrats' soup and stirs it.

Sat., Oct. 10—Outdoor festival. Juniors walk off with high honors.

Tues., Oct. 13—Social hour. Swing music in the inimitable style of the Hillbillie Hotshots. Amos tries a new step. (See 1)

Sat., Oct. 17—Program in evening by CKY Radio station. A very, very good program. The football squad missed the show, but saw a wreck. (See 6)

Sun., Oct. 18—Usual routine of services etc. Girls show their Scandinavian abilities in "My Cousin From Sweden."

Sat., Oct. 24—Aggies trim Morris 7-0 in Homecoming "soup bowl" classic. Ossie must like our mud. We wind up the day with a big dance and party in the evening.

Tues., Oct. 27—Another good old social hour. Mr. Rusk in charge. Marlan in charge of Ruthellen.

Tues., Nov. 3—Social Hour. Football boys can attend. Consequently Higgins scores an extra point.

Thurs., Nov. 5—Time for six weeks exams, so we burn the midnight oil for a couple of nights while the faculty takes it easy—darn 'em. (See 11)
