

The Conference

Ferrier
Harris

Hegreberg

Evans

Hodgson
Trangsrud

Widseth
Radway

Captain Wentzel led his team to conference victory. Wentz has played three years for the Aggies and when he leaves we'll lose a champion player. He was a good sport and a great captain.

Widseth played his first season for the A. C. this year. He followed in his brothers' footsteps in being an important stepping stone to Aggie victories. When he drove, the other team was sure to give way.

Evans spelled danger to the opposing team. He broke up the enemy's play and caused his teammates' plays to click. Woody was elected captain for next year.

Trangsrud never made a spectacular play, but what team could win without a snapper back. Clif was a good center and rarely, if ever, was a fumble caused by him.

Higgin showed excellent judgment in directing his teammates' plays. Ray suffered injuries in the last game, but despite his handicap, he was out there diving away. Ray's a grand fellow and a brainy player.

Ferrier was in there every time to break up the enemy's plays. He took what they had for him and came back for more. Jack's got what it takes to win.

Freije's speed and ability as a player had the opponents guessing. When he started on his end-sweeps something was sure to happen. Chan saved many a would-be touchdown from the enemy.

Hodgson was the life of the team. Vic had a habit of getting in the enemy's hair. Vic was the lightest man on the team, but great gifts come in small packages.

The Squad in Action

