

From Day To Day

5 1 2 3 4
8 9 6 10 7 11

Sun., Nov. 8—Dont look now, but Mr. Mlinars got a new coat.
Tues., Nov. 10—Social Hour. Alton broke his glasses. He wont tell how—not even to Moen. (See 11)
Wed., Nov. 11—Armistice Day. Address by Rev. Snyder. We watched Higgin place a wreath on the monument. (See 6)
Fri., Nov. 13—Everybody superstitious.
Sat., Nov. 14—Some wait anxiously for their grades, others not so anxiously. Among the less "anxiously" are Dorothy and Delene. (See 8)
Mon., Nov. 16—Aggie Board meeting. Decide to dedicate "Aggie" to Jock.
Tues., Nov. 17—Mac plans to put on the storm windows before long. (See 7)
Sat., Nov. 21—Gypsy play "Once in a Lifetime." Phyllis Henre danced a specialty. (See 2)

Sun., Nov. 22—Members of play cast catch up on some of the sleep they've missed. Duane is certainly all tired out. (See 5)
Wed., Nov. 25—Agatha arranges the place cards for the Thanksgiving Dinner. (See 10)
Mon., Dec. 7—Rader wakes up with his spats on. Weindorf looks like he did too. (See 3)
Sun., Dec. 13—Christmas p'lay very good. All school cast.
Mon., Dec. 14—Advanced win Song Contest by close margin.
Tues., Dec. 15—Studying (?) for final exams. (See 1)
Thurs., Dec. 17—Get-together banquet. Rader and Morris Hanson play baseball in Senior. They made an error.
Fri., Dec. 18—Home for Christmas. Parting is such sweet sorrow, eh, Ray?