Many activities are carried on by the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations during a school year. This year's activities have been equally successful in comparison to other years.

This year the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A.'s weekly Sunday morning student gatherings have been large—the largest in attendance of similar meetings in Minnesota. Various faculty members and students led the discussions of lessons of the "Pocket Lesson Quarterly for Young People's Classes."

Sunday evening joint meetings are very well attended. Various ministers from Crookston kindly deliver sermons, and student programs are sponsored after which two reels of enlightening movies are shown.

The first activity under the sponsorship of the Y.M.C.A. was the Boys' Pow-Wow on the first Wednesday evening of the fall term. The Pow-Wow is a jolly assemblage of student boys and numerous faculty men. Group singing; musical numbers by the boys; capers of Sambo, the wooden Negro so cleverly directed by Mr. Foker; roaring laughter greeting very well presented readings by Mr. Streeter; re-energizing of the piano by the flying fingers of Mr. Dunham; and pep talks made the evening memorable. Mr. Dunham played, "You Can't Pull the Wool Over Our Eyes," as the theme song of the faculty. Did we, boys?

Girls had a similar entertainment in Robertson Hall on the same evening directed by the Y.W.C.A. Their "Girls' Frolic" was equally jovial. The boys formed a snake dance winding from the Gymnasium to Robertson where they serenaded the girls as a group—and many particularly interesting individuals were there in the windows gazing down through the dim light at other particularly interesting persons.

The "Get-Acquainted" Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. party on the first Saturday night of the fall term proved to be a truly friend-making event. The feature of having names printed on a piece of paper and worn by their respective owners registers scores of names in others' minds.

This year the Christian Association was responsible for collecting $51.35 from the whole very generous and sympathetic student body and faculty for the Red Cross, to be used in its task of helping stricken people of the flood areas.

Mr. Clark and Miss Bedé have been invaluable leaders and are very largely responsible for the success of the Christian Association of the Northwest School.
