

Dorothy Abbott—Mentor. The shyest of birds still have the sweetest songs.

Freshman: 4-H Club.

Junior: Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. Choir, 4-H Club.

Senior: "Once In a Lifetime," "Our Cousin From Sweden," Class Play, Aggie Board, Variety Night Winner.

Alton Arness—Eldred. A flair for fun and boundless ambition for dancing and music.

Senior: "Once In a Lifetime," Christmas Play, Mixed Chorus.

Marlan Augustine—Thief River Falls. A delightful little rogue, always ready for a good time, yet dependable.

Junior: Orchestra, Thanksgiving Play, Declam.

Senior: Orchestra, Parents' Day Play, Cross Country, Class Play, Variety Night Winner, Home Project Winner, Aggie Board.

Jean Barrett—East Grand Forks. We won't soon forget Jean's ability on the basketball floor.

Freshman: Basketball.

Junior: Basketball.

Senior: Basketball.

Arthur Bengston—Crookston. It's that quiet unassuming way that brings fame.

Marie Blakely—Baudette. We never expected to meet a girl like Marie outside of a fairy-tale.

Freshmen: Basketball.

Junior: Basketball.

Senior: Basketball, "Our Cousin From Sweden," "Once In a Lifetime."

Ralph Brandt—Gonvick. He is a quiet, capable fellow upon whom we can depend.

Eileen Carlson—Crookston. A lovely princess, who knows what she wants and calmly secures it.

Raymond Carlson—Middle River. Ray is exceptional and his many merits warrant success.

Junior: Home Project Winner, Class Basketball.

Senior: Football, Stock Judging, Class Basketball

Roy Carlson—Middle River. Perseverance, amiability and honesty are the links necessary to build this personality.

Senior: Football, Crops Judging, "A" Club.