The "A" Club is an honorary organization at the Northwest School that stands out from the other organizations, as its members consist only of those who have received the honorary "A". It was organized in 1932 and each year following its membership has increased greatly.

The officers have made their honorary "A" in different fields of activities. Roland Wentzel and Tilford Strand made their honorary "A" in football. Axel Rynning received his honorary "A" in Crops Judging, while Le Roy Peterson made his "A" in Stock Judging. There are many other activities that one can take part in and receive an honorary "A". So the students of the Northwest School can take part in any activity that they are the most accustomed to.

"A"s are awarded to only those who fulfill the requirements of the extra-curricular activity which they have gone out for. This year the Alumni Association voted to award sweaters to all letter men in athletics, as you will notice by the picture.

Unfortunately, through an error, two members of the "A" Club, Chan Freije and Victor Hodgson, who have received sweaters and letters for their work in athletics, are not on the picture.

The "A" Club sponsors the "Honors Banquet" which every one of the members looks forward to. It is held near the close of the school term. The guests at this banquet consist of the pepsters and track men who do not receive the honorary "A", but who receive recognition for their work. Faculty members and coaches are guests of honor at this banquet.
