

Thomas M. McCall
Superintendent of the Northwest School and Station
of the University of Minnesota

Class of 1938:

I extend my heartiest congratulations to you, members of the class of 1938, upon the completion of the regular prescribed course of study at the Northwest School. Many of you without further academic training will be launching directly into the stern realities of life. My greatest hope for you is that your training and associates here have fortified you to meet the thoroughness of your academic training; however, my greatest concern is that you have developed that moral stamina which is required for the safe and sane leadership we expect of you.

Sincerely yours,

J. M. McCall
