W. Radway

To My Classmates:

During the past two years it has been my privilege to be your president and with the help of our advisers I hope I have been a worthy one. No one could have asked for better spirit, co-operation, and genuine friendliness than you have all shown. We have spent many happy hours together and it is with some regret that we look forward to graduation; yet we realize that graduation means the completion of one lap of our preparation for life. As time marches on, may we each accept victories and defeats with the same splendid spirit we have displayed here at the Northwest School.

WILSON RADWAY, President
