

CROSS COUNTRY - '37

Back Row—H. Anderson, C. Klug, L. Anda, N. Nelson.
Front Row—Captain W. Weindorf, D. LaPlante, G. Brandt, D. Handegaard.

Captain Werner Weindorf. Short of stature but the spark-plug of the team. He was an efficient captain.

Leonard Anda. His speed and ability kept the opponents guessing. He was the pace-setter of the squad.

Harold Anderson. His courage to keep going made him a valuable member of the cross country squad.

Captain Weindorf

Klug

Anderson

Brandt

Glenn Brandt. A reliable runner who always finished the difficult two mile run. One more year ahead.

Clarence Klug. With his long strides and remarkable staying power he proved to be very tough for the opposition.

Leorton Lofstrand. His first year on the squad but his experiences make him a valuable man for next year's meets.

Anda

Lofstrand

Nine candidates, led by Captain Werner Weindorf, reported for regular workouts of the cross-country squad. The 1937 season witnessed only one inter-school meet, that with the Central Aggies of St. Paul. When the two mile course on the Northwest campus had been run we were defeated by St. Paul, 20-35.

