May, 1937, was the occasion for the silver wedding anniversary of three of the campus families. In honor of the occasion campus employees and residents held a surprise party for the celebrants. The honored guests were Supt. and Mrs. T. M. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kiser, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sunderland, (pictured above). A mock wedding ceremony was staged during which time the three couples were re-wed by Mr. A. M. Foker as preacher. Miss Lois Lohn, English instructor, and Mr. R. J. Christgau were flower girl and boy respectively. J. W. Mlinar was the ring-bearer. Following the mock ceremony a lunch was served to all campus residents and employees.
