

The students awarded prizes at awards assembly in home projects were as follows: Boys awarded first prize ribbons: Plant identification, Clarence Klug; Insect Collection, Ernest Malmkog; Pure Seed, Walter Schulz; Farm Accounts, Vernon Roe; Windbreak Planting, Elmer Moe; Farmstead Beautification, Eleanor Weber; Gardening, Glen Mellesmoen; Rocks and Minerals, John Rader; Sweepstakes winner, silver loving cup, Henry Becker for Weed Seed Collection and Identification; Flaot Potato plaque to Ralph Hvidsten, 1937 potato project; Dairyman's Association plaque to Albert Adler, Dairy Herd Management; Lee Tractor plaque to Maurice Stauning, record on tractor operations for 1937.

Girls awarded achievement ribbons: Ivy McVeety, cooking and sewing; Edna Hoppe, cooking; and Katherine Molacek, sewing. Myrtle Hanson awarded silver trophy for best 1937 Home Economics project.

