

CAPTAIN HARRY WARD - - - Duluth
BACKFIELD

In his second year of service on the Northwest School football teams. He proved to be a capable leader. Not only as a line-smasher but as a speaker he was "tops".

LAWRENCE ANDERSON - - - Argyle
GUARD

A hard working member of the 1937 reserves who made good during the '38 season. A dependable and hard hitting lineman.

HENRY BERG - - - Red Lake Falls
GUARD

A great guard who smashed through the opponent's line with consistency. He was an important factor in the team's success.

HENRY BERQUIST - - - Baudette
TACKLE

Bud's playing in the line was spectacular until a shoulder injury put him on the shelf. He has another season left.

ROBERT CRAWFORD - - - Crookston
BACKFIELD

Bob may be small but his drive helped gain many yards and score many touchdowns for the team.

MARTIN EGELAND - - - Fisher
BACKFIELD

A backfield man whose determination and drive gained many yards for the Aggies. Marty has two years of service ahead.

On October 15 the Northwest Aggies clashed with the Bemidji High eleven on the campus. Bemidji ran up a 26-7 score displaying one of the speediest offenses ever seen on a Northwest School gridiron. The Aggies were held scoreless until the last few minutes of play when a 75 yard run was made for touchdown and the only Northwest score.
