

EDWARD McMILLAN - - - Mahnomen
END

Speed and height aided him in fulfilling his position. He was a tough customer. This is his second year in an Aggie uniform.

VERNON MAGNUSSON - - - Badger
TACKLE

His spirit and fight kept his teammates going. He worried his opponents and contributed in a large measure to the team's success.

DEAN McNELLY - - - - - Anoka
TACKLE

A veteran of several years of experience who was playing his first year for the Northwest Aggies. He was poison to the opponents.

EDWIN MORTENSON - - - Wannaska
TACKLE

A stonewall on the defense and a player whose steady work was a treat to coach and teammates.

HARVEY PEDERSON - - - Kennedy
GUARD

A player whose power and drive was the ruination of many of the opponent's best laid plans. Two more years of service remain for him.

TELFRED SLETTVEDT - - - - - Oklee
GUARD

Another hard-hitting lineman who has two years of service ahead. In his first season as a regular he was a bulwark on defense.

On November 4 we met the Mahnomen High team on the Northwest School gridiron. The Aggies had a crippled lineup but Mr. Evans' new combination proved successful. The Aggies scored immediately after the kickoff in the first quarter. Mahnomen scored in the third period and the two teams ended in a 7-7 tie.
