

BASKETBALL

1938-39

The 1938-39 basketball season opened on November 23 with Central High of Grand Forks offering the opposition. A total of 18 games were scheduled for the season.

The first game with the Crookston High Pirates proved to be a thriller. Coaches, players, scorers, and spectators were tense throughout the entire contest.

McNelly, Northwest School center (number 45), outjumps his man and passes to Homdrom (number 46). The Aggies get possession of the ball and go down the court.

The yells of the spectators are deafening as the players fight for the ball.

The Northwest Aggies register a field goal.

The game is over. Did the Aggies win or lose??? The first St. Paul game and the second Thief River Falls game proved to be most thrilling and exciting to the spectators.
