

AGGIE ROUSER

The Aggie Rouser, our school paper, is the first student publication of its kind at the Northwest School. It was organized last fall by the Journalism class under the supervision of Miss Dorothy M. Smith and Mr. J. W. Mlinar.

The large staff is headed by Albert Adler who was Editor of last year's Annual. The other staff members are students of the Advanced and Senior classes enrolled in Journalism.

The staff has published ten issues of the Rouser this year and plans a special commencement edition.
