

AGGIE BOARD

When it was announced last spring that we were to be the members of the 1939 Aggie Board, the job looked easy.

Our Aggie was going to break all records. We'd show 'em! But—we didn't foresee all the Sunday and Monday afternoons that we were to spend in the publication of our annual; we didn't know of all the films that had to be developed, the ads that had to be solicited, the articles that had to be written, and all the checking, and rechecking that had to be completed.

But, now that the job is over, we are all glad that we were on the Aggie Board, and that we have had a hand in the making of this book.

It was a lot of work and a lot of fun. We hope you like it.
