

Variety Night is featured once a year under the supervision of the Social and Entertainment Committee. The program consists entirely of numbers prepared and arranged by the students without faculty aid.

The program this year was presented on December 10, 1938. Seventeen numbers competed for prizes.

PROGRAM

Ole The Swede - - - - Arda Crown
 Ever-ready Preston - - - Zenes Bicking
 When the Cat's Away - - - Edna Hoppe
 Mildred Breiland, Ruby Breiland, Ann Sorenson, Edna Balstad. (third prize for groups)
 Mahnomen Bush Wacher - Henry Becker
 Radio Revels Trio - - - Melvin Gibbons
 Marion Erlandson, Talbert Koppang
 Ein Or Els - - - Ellsworth Zutz
 Einar Scholin
 Hartman-Halliday - - - Orpha Hartman
 Betty and Jean Halliday
 The Trumpeters - - - George Henre
 Leyden Finney
 Melody Mel - - - - Melvin Gibbons
 The Swing Twins - - - Marlyce Grout
 Viola Johnson (third prize)

Mountain Pioneer - - - Leonard Williamson
 (third prize individuals)
 Dancing Lady - - - - Joan Phillips
 (second prize individuals)
 A Bit of Old Erin - - - Robert Nelson
 Walter Stromstad, Ruth Skarp (first prize)
 Pick and Pluck - - - - Leroy Hanson
 John Hoglin (second prize)
 The Shadow - - - - Ed McMillan
 Harvey Pederson, Odney Flaatt, Martin Ege-land, Telfred Slettvedt (first prize for groups)
 The Meister Singer - - - Lloyal Harris
 Ruth Skarp (first prize)
 Three Old Maids From Lynn - Myrtle Hanson
 Edith Clow, Nancy Hopkins, Ruth Skarp
 (second prize for groups)

Top, left—The Meister Singer; Top, right—A Bit of Old Erin; Bottom, left—The Shadow; Bottom, right—Three Old Maids

V
A
R
I
E
T
Y

N
I
G
H
T